

*You, your family and friends are invited to attend
a Lenten Retreat and a Very Special Presentation*

UKRAINE AUTOCEPHALY AND ORTHODOX UNITY

Wednesday, April 17th

St. Demetrios Church

57 BROWN STREET
WESTON, MA 01493

6-7:15 PM -Pre-Sanctified Divine Liturgy

7:30 PM -Dinner and Discussion

OUR SPEAKERS:

Dr. Lewis Patsavos, PhD

Dr. Lewis Patsavos is Professor Emeritis of Holy Cross Greek Orthodox School of Theology where he spent his career as the professor of Canon Law. Dr. Patsavos also was the Director of Field Education from its inception until the time of his retirement. He stays very active in retirement both writing within his field of discipline as well as speaking at churches across the Archdiocese and at international theological conferences.

Rev. Fr. Emmanuel Clapsis, PhD

Fr. Emmanuel Clapsis has taught at Holy Cross Greek Orthodox School of Theology since 1985 specializing in Dogmatic Theology and also teaching courses that relate Orthodox theology to modern and post modern sensibilities. He became tenured professor of Systematic Theology in 2003 and was appointed the Archbishop Iakovos Professor of Orthodox Theology in 2010.

RSVP by April 9th to St. Demetrios at 781-237-5561 or email: office@stdemetriosweston.org if you will attend and the total number of people coming. Thank you!

This event is sponsored by:

ORDER OF ST. ANDREW THE APOSTLE OF THE ECUMENICAL PATRIARCHATE

THE ARCHONS OF NEW ENGLAND

"A blessed Lenten journey to you and your family"