

GIRL DELEGATE PROGRAM

APPLICATIONS OPEN

Now

A program available to high school girls within the umbrella of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America who are interested in participating in advocacy efforts at the United Nations in New York City.

Applications for the national cohort of the Girl Delegates of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America to the United Nations Program are open! Find the application here:

<https://forms.office.com/r/OVb4PKh2cZ>

APPLICATION DEADLINE: Friday, February 2, 2024

Who is eligible for the program?

- Be between the ages of 14 and 18 years old;
- Have an interest in justice issues (including but not limited to environmental issues, access to education, digital divide, human trafficking, etc.);
- Be of the Greek Orthodox faith and a member of a parish.

“Our hope is that through this program, we will help empower Orthodox young women like yourselves to achieve leadership roles, both within our church and throughout global organizations, such as the United Nations.” – His Eminence Archbishop Elpidophoros of America, Remarks to the GOA Girl Delegates, June 2, 2022

Questions? Reach out to Niki Devaris Morgulis at ndevarismorgulis@goarch.org.