

TENTH ANNUAL SAINT PHOTIOS THE GREAT
FAITH & LEARNING
SYMPOSIUM

Understanding the Other:
Perspectives on Religious Freedom, Extremism, and Suffering in Crisis and Conflict

HCHC President Fr. Nicholas Triantifilou is known to encourage Orthodox Christians to begin the day with a Bible in one hand and a newspaper in the other. This symposium honors his 15 years of service to the school and retirement this year by addressing current conflicts and crises around the world from an Orthodox scholarly perspective.

Featured Speakers

Dr. Thomas Crea

Thomas M. Crea, PhD, is an Associate Professor and Chair of the Global Practice Concentration at the School of Social Work at Boston College. Dr. Crea's research focuses on social interventions for vulnerable children and families, in local, national, and international contexts.

Dr. Elizabeth H. Prodromou

Elizabeth Prodromou, PhD, is Visiting Associate Professor of Conflict Resolution at The Fletcher School (Tufts University). Currently a member of the U.S. Secretary of State's Religion & Foreign Policy Working Group, she served (2004-2012) as Vice Chair and Commissioner on the U.S. Commission on International Religious Freedom.

Dr. Marian Simion

Marian Gh. Simion, PhD, is a political scientist and Orthodox theologian. He is a Postdoctoral Fellow and Field Education Supervisor at Harvard Divinity School, and the administrator of the Religious Studies program at Hellenic College.

The Faith & Learning Symposium provides Orthodox Christian college students from Boston-area colleges and universities with the space to reflect on the relationship between their faith and lives as college students.

WHEN

Saturday, February 7, 2015

9:30 am–3:30 pm

MORNING

Coffee and registration, roundtable discussion with panelists

AFTERNOON

Lunch-discussion, full group discussion with panelists, closing reception

WHERE

Hellenic College Holy Cross

Library Reading Room

50 Goddard Avenue

Brookline, Massachusetts

The event is free and open to college and graduate students throughout Boston and New England.

CONTACT

Mike Tishel

mtishel@hchc.edu, 617-850-1310

Office of Vocation & Ministry
HELLENIC COLLEGE HOLY CROSS