

What does the Bible say about Stewardship?
 The Bible says we should give without show, give with regularity and proportion, and give liberally.
 Most importantly, we should give cheerfully.
 Let's all remember this as we look forward to a most wonderful year at Annunciation.
 Please remember to fill out your pledge cards for 2020!

In Christ,
 Stella Dariotis

ANNUNCIATION SACRAMENTO AT FDF 2020

Last weekend was the annual Metropolis of San Francisco Greek Orthodox Folk Dance and Choral Festival, FDF.

This year, we sent 5 dance groups:
Ta Paidakia, Anthema, Nea Genia, Hara, & Deos.

We are very proud of all our dance groups!
Anthema and Filarakia, in Division III, received participation awards for their performances!

Nea Genia, performing a set of dances from the island of Crete in Division II, Advanced Primary Category, received costume award and second place!

Hara, performing a set of dances from Pontos in Division I, Intermediate Category, received fourth place!

And Deos, performing a set of dances from Roumlouki in Division I, Advance Senior, received the Division I sweepstakes!

In addition to 5 dance groups, we had 7 young adults serve on the FDF Management Team, to help plan and make the weekend run smoothly:

Danae Magoulias, Director of Events

Katherine Rotas, Events Team

Angelica Whaley, Events Team

Christina Tsapouklis, Registration Team

Yianni Magoulias, Logistics Team

Taki Vathis, Logistics Team & Meals

Vasilis Voresis, Meals Volunteer

We would also like to congratulate Danae Magoulias, Director of Events, for receiving the Metropolitan Anthony Leadership Award for her leadership and initiative in planning and coordinating this year's FDF!

Congratulations to all our groups and all the participants!
We are very proud of your hard work and dedication!
