TIME: from 9 a.m. – Noon
8:30 a.m. Check in and coffee

PLACE: Essex Town Hall
29 West Avenue, Essex

Several faith communities in the Lower Connecticut River Valley will host a free event designed to educate, encourage and explore with participants medical, legal, spiritual, relational, and memorial issues confronting each of us as we (or those we love) approach the end of our lives. Members of the clergy, medical and legal professionals, funeral home and hospice care professionals will make presentations and allow time for questions. Participants will receive a workbook to use as a reminder and a guide for individual work on these areas of personal decisions.

Join us and invite others to join you as we look both ways and consider the decisions of a lifetime.
