Sunday is Philoptochos “Go Red Sunday”

“Philoptochos is the heartbeat of the Greek Orthodox community.”

In the Greek Orthodox community, Philoptochos is the heartbeat, pulsating with compassion and commitment. Our philanthropic organization, rooted in the principles of love and service, plays a pivotal role in fostering unity and support within the community.

As an emblem of solidarity, Philoptochos annually celebrates "Go Red Sunday" on the first Sunday in February, aligning its efforts with the American Heart Association's broader initiative. While the American Heart Association designates February 2nd as Wear Red Day,

Philoptochos extends the observance to February 4th this year for "Go Red Sunday", creating a distinctive occasion for our community to unite, raise awareness, and promote heart health throughout the month of February.
