

This year, St. Nicholas Greek Orthodox Cathedral has the honor to host the Metropolis of Atlanta's Clergy Laity Assembly. The Clergy Laity Assembly is a gathering of all the communities of our Metropolis (75 parishes across 8 Southeastern states including: Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Louisiana, Mississippi, both Carolinas and parts of Tennessee) and so offers an opportunity to discuss and decide vital matters affecting the life, mission, growth of our communities, as well as the ministries, finances, and philanthropic matters of the Metropolis as a whole.

As you can imagine, our community is immensely pleased and proud to welcome our Brothers and Sisters in Christ to the Innisbrook Resort from June 21, 2023-June 25, 2023. Planning this gathering (which will also include meetings for our Metropolis Philoptochos, our Sisterhood of Presvyteres & the Southeastern Federation of Greek Orthodox Choirs and Musicians) is a wonderful opportunity, but we are aware that registrations fees alone cannot subsidize an Assembly of this size. Therefore, we humbly ask that members of our community consider joining businesses, families, and parishes throughout our Metropolis to support us by contributing toward a specific event. The net proceeds of the Clergy Laity Assembly will be utilized to benefit the ministries of the Metropolis of Atlanta and the Diakonia Retreat Center located in Salem, South Carolina.
