

ANNUNCIATION/EVANGELISMOS CHURCH 2024 HIGH SCHOOL GRADUATES

Eleftherios (Teddy) Dalson, son of Anna and Dean Dalson, graduated from Germantown Friends School. He will be attending Tufts University. Teddy is thankful to have grown up in Annunciation's dynamic and nurturing environment. He has many fond memories from participating in Catechism, Greek School, Hope/Joy, Dance Group, and GOYA, where he served as Treasurer and Co-President. He loved volunteering at the OPA festivals with his friends and family. Teddy is especially grateful for his years of altar service, which grounded him in his faith and the strong friendships he has made at Annunciation over the years.

Alexandra McNally, daughter of Maria and James McNally, graduated from Germantown Friends School. She will be attending Carnegie Mellon University. Alexandra, better known as Ally, co-captained the Girls' Tennis and Lacrosse teams, performed in various theatrical performances, and was a Student Council Representative. She was the Co-President of Annunciation Elkins Park GOYA, where she enjoyed competing in basketball games, participating in Sights and Sounds, and volunteering at the Greek School. Starting this fall, Ally will attend the College of Engineering at Carnegie Mellon University. She recently received the Dr. Michael Dorizas Memorial Scholarship from the Hellenic University Club of Philadelphia.

ANNUNCIATION/EVANGELISMOS CHURCH 2024 UNIVERSITY GRADUATES

John Raleigh Armentani, son of Denise and Richard Armentani, graduated Summa Cum Laude from Drexel University, LeBow College of Business, with a Bachelor of Science in Finance and Marketing, Communications minor. He completed his coursework in three years, receiving his degree in September 2023, and will be walking at graduation with his classmates in June. John has been recognized with the highest distinction from the Pennoni Honors Program. He will represent his class with honors during the graduation ceremony as a distinguished member of LeBow's Dean's Student Advisory Board. John received numerous awards, was involved in many activities, including the Drexel Baseball team, and was a Resident Assistant with the Office of Residential Living. He completed his cooperative education experience at Comcast on the Xfinity Sales Compensation team. His impact on the team was dynamic; John was extended a full-time offer with the company and has transitioned into a role in Quality Assurance Audit, where he has been working since completing his studies. Additionally, John and his brothers have a successful music career as producers/DJs, performing nationally as the Armentani Brothers.

Anthony Cardenas, son of Maria Malitas, graduated from Bloomsburg University with a degree in Business IT Analytics. Anthony works at DHL in Hersey, PA.

Catherine McNally, daughter of Maria and James McNally, graduated from the University of Oxford, England, with an MPhil (Distinction) in Islamic Art and Architecture. She is currently a PhD student in the Aga Khan Program for Islamic Architecture and the History, Theory, and Criticism of Art and Architecture at MIT. With a primary focus on the Late Antique Eastern Mediterranean, her research investigates the spatialization of Islam through medieval Christian architecture.

Elena Markos, daughter of Ginny and Ron Markos, graduated from Seton Hall School of Law with a JD in law. She will practice Healthcare Law. Elena will get married in October and start her law career with the New Jersey Judicial System.

Ava Penning, daughter of Sophia and Russell Penning, graduated from LIM College in NYC with a Master's in Fashion Merchandising. In a few weeks, she will begin her internship at Ross corporate offices. She hopes that her experience will help her get full-time employment in the fall.

Jasmine Debbie Vlahos, daughter of Evangelea and Chris Vlahos, graduated from Humanitas University Milan, Italy, with a Medical Degree. She is an Emergency Room Physician. Jasmine also got married and had a beautiful baby girl!

Congratulations to All!
