

PARISH COUNCIL ELECTIONS 2024 PROFILES

Lisa Jordan

Lisa Jordan has been a member of St. George Greek Orthodox church since 1975. She graduated from Wheaton College in Wheaton, Illinois in 1994 with a BA in Business and Economics. Lisa resides in Inver Grove Heights with her husband Misael and has three daughters, Kharissa, Miriam and Evie.

Lisa is self employed working at the company that she and her husband created in 2012 doing utility construction.

She has spent her time at St. George in many roles over the years such as singing in the choir, VP and secretary of Philoptochos, Parish Council member, Greek festival chair person, Greek dance group, church school teacher and substitute, committee member on the John Pitsavas Scholarship Committee as well as hosting the church picnic for several years.

Lisa would like to continue serving on the parish council and feels an obligation to help uphold the faith, and assist the parish in critical decisions moving forward. She would like to use her knowledge that has been accumulated over the years to help the St. George community grow and flourish while maintaining a Christ centered community.

Deena Zubulake

Deena has served on the Parish Council for the past three years. It is important for her to serve because it is a way of giving back to a community that feels like home, uplifts in times of need, and is part of her family's legacy. Deena has two adult children - Steven and Maria, and a grandson - Moses. She enjoys historical fiction, music, art, and traveling with friends. Deena has spent over 25 years in the nonprofit sector designing and leading programs for youth and families. She has extensive experience in facilitation, strategic planning, and fiscal management. Deena holds a Master of Education - Youth Development Leadership from the University of Minnesota, certification in professional project management from the University of St. Thomas, and Bachelor of Arts in Sociology/Intercultural Studies from the University of Northwestern St. Paul, MN. During her tenure at YWCA St. Paul, she led the Young Women's Initiative of Minnesota, received a $3M MacKenzie Scott Grant, and the organization was awarded the Minnesota Council for Nonprofit Mission Award for Anti-Racism Initiatives. www.linkedin.com/in/deenazubulake
