

Catechism Class

Every Monday during Great Lent, following the Great Compline Service at 6:00 p.m., we will be having Catechism Class for those couples getting married in the Church, and for those interested in Orthodoxy.

We will be reading and discussing the book "Introducing the Orthodox Church" by Fr. Anthony Coniaris.

Anyone wishing to participate is asked to purchase the book, and to contact Fr. Michael (fmg@dormitionpgh.org).

The schedule and topics for each class is listed below:

- Monday, March 3rd
 - Class Introduction
 - The One, Holy, Catholic and Apostolic Church, pages 4-18
 - What We Believe about the Nicene Creed, pages 19-24
 - What We Believe about Jesus, pages 25-30
 - What We Believe about the Holy Trinity, pages 31-43
- Monday, March 10th
 - What We Believe about the Divine Liturgy, pages 44-61
- Monday, March 17th
 - What We Believe about Salvation, pages 62-73
 - We Are the Church of the Early Fathers, pages 74-92
 - What We Believe About the church year, pages 93-110
- Monday, March 24th
 - What the Walls of the Orthodox Church Teach Us, pages 111-118
 - What We Believe About the Saints and the Theotokos, pages 119-138
 - What We Believe About Icons, pages 225-240
- Monday, March 31st
 - What We Believe about Eschatology or Life after Death, pages 139-162
 - What We Believe About the Sacraments, pages 163-196
- Monday, April 7th
 - What We Believe about the Bibles, pages 197-224
 - What We Believe about Prayers for the Dead, pages 241-247
 - What We Believe about Prayers, pages 248-274
 - In View of all This, What Therefore Is Expected of Us, pages 275-282