Discovering Your True Identity in Christ

GOYA Night with Fr. Nik

Friday, November 6

7:00 PM – 10:00 PM

Assumption Greek Orthodox Church
30 Clapboard Ridge Road, Danbury, CT

Join us for an evening of faith, fellowship, and honest conversation.

We'll explore how easy it is to ground our identity and self-worth in roles and labels—"athlete," "student," "Greek," or others—and measure ourselves by success or failure in those areas.

Then we'll discover the bigger picture: we are made in the image and likeness of God, created with inherent worth out of an outpouring of love. Our value doesn't depend on our performance. We're invited to become more like Him—more loving, patient, kind, and forgiving.

A safe and welcoming space to be exactly as you are, bring your questions, and wrestle with what the world says versus what the Church teaches.

All GOYAns welcome.

Please RSVP to GOYA@agoc.us or on sportsYou App
