PARISHIONER VOTING - Official Church By-Laws / Article XI – ELECTIONS

6. A regular member of the community already enrolled in the Parish registry, but who has neglected to pay his/her current dues, may cast his ballot in the election as long as he/she pays his/her dues in full even on the day of the election.
7. 7A) In order to have the right to vote every new member of the Parish must have been enrolled in the registry of the Parish at least three (3) months prior to the election.
8. 8A) Parishioners who are unable to vote at the elections because of a commuting problem or for reasons relative to their employment or confinement due to illness may send their votes by mail to the Board of Elections provided, however, that the following guidelines are adhered to:

   1.) They notify the Elections Committee in writing at least two weeks prior to the said date of the election requesting an application for an absentee ballot.

   2.) One week prior to the elections an official ballot will be forwarded to them for completion. Upon completion of the absentee ballot, in the presence of no other person, the voter must affix their signature on the reverse side of the sealed ballot in the presence of a notary public and send the sealed ballot back to the Board of Elections at the return address provided.

   3.) However, such vote by mail must be received by the Board of Elections at least one day prior to the date of elections. Ballots forwarded by mail will be opened and counted on the date of the election along with other votes.

   Eligibility of those requesting absentee ballots will be verified prior to forwarding any absentee ballot.

Sincerely,
Holy Trinity Church Election Committee
Paris Karahalios (Chair), Theodora Stathopoulos (Secretary), Debra Chronopoulos, Jill Cricones and Susan Pergakis.
