Beloved in Christ,

In the month of November, we celebrate the feasts of a variety of saints. With these feasts we see a true cross-section of the various orders of saints and angels. It is a beautiful month of celebrations that also includes the beginning of the Nativity Fast, which prepares us both spiritually and physically for the birth of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Let us look closely at these feasts and their role in our spiritual lives.

The first feast we encounter is that of the Holy Anargyroi, or Unmercenaries, Sts. Cosmas and Damianos on November 1st. These saints who were brothers in the flesh, were trained physicians and fervent followers of Christ. Their title, anargyroi, literally means silver-less; in other words, Sts. Cosmas and Damianos would refuse payment for their medical services, because they took to heart the words of the Gospel to give freely. The healing that they offered went beyond the known medical techniques of the day; their healing took on a spiritual nature because of their personal holiness, thus bringing miraculous cures to their ailing brethren. They are supreme examples of true Christian giving without expecting anything in return. Sts. Cosmas and Damianos also show us how we, too, can continue the compassionate ministry of Christ through deep and sincere faith.

The next feast we encounter is that of the Holy Archangels Michael and Gabriel and all the bodiless heavenly powers, celebrated on November 8th. In this feast we celebrate those celestial beings created by God to serve Him eternally. In the history of mankind, we see many instances in Scripture of mysterious visitations from the heavenly powers, in order to bring divine messages to the earth. In fact, the original Greek word for an angel – angheλos – literally means, messenger. The angelic host is a creation of God just as mankind; however, they differ from us in that they are spiritual beings – not bodily – and of a higher nature. This is precisely why they can appear in human form to us, and can vanish before our eyes. From the time of our baptism, God has assigned each of our souls a guardian angel to watch over us every moment of our life. God loves us so much, that he has given us this great gift for us to know that we are never truly alone on this earth.

Two great hierarchs of the Church that are celebrated in November are St. Nektarios of Pentapolis on November 9th, and St. John Chrysostom on the 13th. St. Nektarios is one of the most recent saints of the Orthodox Church, having fallen asleep in the Lord in 1920. St. Nektarios was a very pious bishop who, as with many holy men and women of the Church, had jealous opponents and accusers. With all the persecutions he endured, he never succumbed to their pettiness, but rather, remained steadfast in his faith as we all should in times of tribulation. St. Nektarios is a miracle-working saint who has healed many of various afflictions, especially cancer.

St. John Chrysostom is the most well-known and eloquent of Orthodox Christian orators, hence his epithet Chrysostom, or golden-mouthed. His extensive writings fill Orthodox libraries around the world, teaching us the deep treasures of our faith with every line. Many of the soul-stirring prayers of the Divine Liturgy are also by his hand. One of St. John's most spirituality up-lifting compositions is his Paschal sermon, which is read in every Orthodox church at the end of either the Orthros or Divine Liturgy of Holy Pascha.

November 21st is one of the twelve major feasts of the year – the Entrance of the Theotokos into the Temple. This very meaningful feast is based on the apocryphal writings of the early Church, and therefore has become part of Holy Tradition. This highly symbolic feast presents us with the spiritual reality of the Theotokos' role in salvation history. Tradition teaches us that she was presented to the Temple by her parents, in thanksgiving for her birth after many years of being childless. Her entrance into the Holy of Holies of the Temple is seen by the Church as a prophetic statement of her role as the true and living ark of the Covenant; in other words, she was to become the sacred vessel which would contain the living Word of God in the flesh. We are reminded through this feast of the deep and special relationship that the Theotokos has with her Son and our Savior. This is why her prayers are the most fervent of any offered to Christ.

Two great martyrs of the Church are celebrated in late November. St. Katherine the Great-Martyr is celebrated on the 25th. She fills us with spiritual strength because of her fearless opposition to her pagan persecutors who executed her for her belief in Christ, and for bringing many others to Him. We see in St. Katherine a highly intelligent, Spirit-filled woman who had a spiritual understanding beyond her years.

The other great martyr, who is also one of the Holy Apostles of our Lord, is St. Andrew, celebrated on the 30th. He is known by the Church as the "first-called" of the apostles, and the brother in-the-flesh of the Apostle Peter. While fervently preaching the Gospel of Christ to the Gentiles of Patras, Greece, he was arrested and suffered a horrific death at the hands of his Roman persecutors. St. Andrew was crucified on an X-shaped cross, suffering for days before expiring. St. Andrew now sits on one of the twelve thrones of the Holy Apostles, constantly interceding for all of us.

Beloved in Christ, see how rich our Holy Tradition truly is! Our liturgical year is filled with feasts which continually uplift us year after year. Let us receive grace through our participation in these celebrations, and teach our children the richness of our holy Orthodox faith that has survived 2,000 years, and will survive unto the end of time.

In Christ's love,

+Fr. Anthony

Nativity Fast Begins 11/15

On November 15th, the Holy Orthodox Church begins its preparation for the Nativity of our Lord through a 40-day fast. The majority of this period is considered a relaxed fast, and not particularly strict until the final 12 days. Following, are the generally accepted guidelines for the first part of the Nativity fast, for those without health issues who wish to follow it to the full extent.

From 11/15–12/12

- Fasting from all animal products.
- Fish, wine (all alcoholic beverages) and olive oil may be consumed daily, except for Wednesdays and Fridays. Shellfish is permitted daily.

Note: Fasting is always suspended for Thanksgiving Day per our Holy Archdiocese.

It behooves us to prepare ourselves spiritually for the Nativity of Our Lord by attempting to keep this fast to whatever extent possible (with the exception of course, of those with particular health concerns, expectant and nursing mothers, and growing children). As with all fast periods of the Church, remember to incorporate regular church attendance, increased prayer, and charitable works. Holy Confession should also part of each fast season of the liturgical year. I am always available for guidance, so please don't hesitate to ask!

Spiritual Wisdom

The following selections are taken from a collection of sacred poetry by St. Ephraim the Syrian, collectively known as "Hymns on Paradise."

HYMN II

1. Blessed is he for whom Paradise yearns. Yes, Paradise yearns for the man whose goodness makes him beautiful; it engulfs him at its gateway, it embraces him in its bosom, it caresses him in its very womb; for it splits open and receives him into its inmost parts. But if there is someone it abhors, it removes him and casts him out; this is the gate of testing that belongs to Him who loves mankind.

3. When people see that they have lost everything, that riches do not endure and carnal desires no longer exist, that beauty and power disappear and vanish, then they recollect themselves and are filled with remorse, because, choked with care, they heard with contempt those words, 'Your possessions are but a passing dream, your inheritance, darkness.'

5. The righteous, too, perceive that their own affliction no longer exists, their suffering does not endure, their burden no longer remains, and it seems as if no anguish had ever assailed them. Their fasts appear as though a mere dream, for they have woken as it were from sleep to discover Paradise and the Kingdom's table spread out before them.

6. By those who are outside, the summit cannot be scaled, but from inside, Paradise inclines its whole self to all who ascend it; the whole of its interior gazes upon the just with joy. Paradise girds the loins of the world, encircling the great sea; neighbor to the beings on high, friendly to those within it, hostile to those without.

Four New Icons for Nave

After the installation of the 14 icons of saints around the Nave, I have realized that there is appropriate space for additional four icons. I have selected icons of four diverse saints, available for donation as follows:

- St. Irene the Great Martyr (one of the great woman martyrs of the early Church)
- St. Xenia, Fool for Christ (a popular female saint of the Russian Orthodox Church, and throughout Orthodoxy)
- St. Seraphim of Sarov (a popular saint of the Slavic tradition, and throughout Orthodoxy)
- St. Raphael of Brooklyn (a bishop from Syria who was very active in early pan-Orthodoxy in America)

Important: In order to avoid confusion or overlapping orders, please communicate directly with Fr. Anthony via e-mail (franthony@annunciationdover.org) or telephone (603-742-7667), if you would like to donate an icon. The pricing has not changed since our prior order, remaining at $65 each.

May this be a blessing to our anticipated donors!

Annunciation Young Adults

The Annunciation Young Adults had another enjoyable Orthodoxy on Tap on October 29th. Soon we will all be beginning the fast for the blessed Nativity of Christ. Lastly, please keep Gabriel (Alan) Nichols and Cyprian Fresh in your prayers, as they travel all the way to.the country of Georgia to visit the tomb of St Gabriel Urgebadze!

Hope/Joy

Hello HOPE & JOY Families!

I want to thank everyone who attended our first "Candy Crawl." I hope you all enjoyed the event. It was so fun to see the children learn about the saints, and collect a few candy treats to go along with it. I really enjoyed putting the facts together for you all.

I learned a lot myself, and tried to seek out some saints that were hopefully new to you and your children. In November, we are hosting another new event - "Friends-giving." This will be a potluck-style event where families will each bring a dish to share. A Sign Up Genius will be coming out during the first week of November where you can sign up to attend, and list what you would like to bring.

I hope to see many of you there, and am looking forward to seeing the children enjoy another fellowship event!

With gratitude,
Laura Blagojevic

ALKISTIS NEWS

November, 2026

Dear Parish Family,

What a wonderful October we have had! Fall has certainly brought beautiful colors, cooler days, and plenty of opportunities to come together, share some laughs, and make wonderful memories with our Alkistis ladies.

One of the highlights of our month was our Sip 'n' Paint Night, which was a tremendous success! Sixteen ladies joined us for an evening of creativity, friendship, and lots of laughter. Everyone had the opportunity to create their very own masterpiece, and we had such a wonderful time doing it! Our instructor, Tina Williams of Tina Williams Art in Portsmouth, NH, kept everyone entertained and smiling throughout the evening. Tina made sure everyone was having fun, whether we were painting a beautiful picture or simply enjoying the company of our friends.

At the beginning of the evening, Tina gave everyone a very important warning: there is always the possibility of accidentally sipping the paint water instead of your wine! And, of course, should that happen, she has a special sash ready for the unfortunate artist that reads, "I Drank the Paint Water!" Well, wouldn't you know it? We had two ladies who earned the honor of wearing Tina's famous sash! 😂 Needless to say, there was plenty of laughter, and those moments made the evening even more memorable. Be sure to check out the photos below to see our talented artists, their beautiful masterpieces, and perhaps a glimpse of those who got a little too carried away with their sipping! It was truly a wonderful evening and another reminder that some of the best memories are made when we gather together, try something new, and share a few good laughs along the way.

📅 Looking Ahead – November Events!

We have a busy and exciting November ahead, and we hope you will join us for these special events!

💃 Fall Dance – Saturday, November 7th

🇺🇸 Veterans Day Luncheon – Sunday, November 8th
The Alkistis Ladies Association is honored to host our Veterans Day Luncheon in Father Athans Hall. Please join us for a light luncheon and a special ceremony recognizing and honoring the veterans in our parish who have so proudly served our country. A special request to our parish family: Please make sure Father has the names of all our parishioners who are veterans so that we can properly recognize and honor them during the ceremony. We want to make sure no one is overlooked!

Alkistis News

Let us come together as a parish family to celebrate, honor, and thank those who have served our country. We look forward to sharing this meaningful day with you all.

As we head into November, we are grateful for the friendship, generosity, and fellowship that make our Alkistis sisterhood so special. Thank you to everyone who participates, volunteers, and helps make our activities such a success. Whether we're painting masterpieces, dancing the night away, or honoring our veterans, it's the time we spend together that makes these occasions so meaningful.

As we always say, it takes a village! Thank you for being part of ours.

Wishing you all a beautiful November filled with blessings, good health, laughter, and many reasons to rejoice!

Frequently Asked Questions:

Q: How do I become a member of the parish?

A: Membership in the Orthodox Church begins at baptism (Chrismation for some) and continues throughout our life. We are united with Christ through the sacraments, or mysteries, of the Church and through our faithful offering of our entire selves to Jesus Christ. A voting member is over 18 years of age and offers stewardship commitment card, committing a portion of time, talent & treasure to the Church. Stewardship also requires the voting member to remain current on their commitments. Keep in mind that true membership in the Body of Christ involves living according to His word and within His Church.

Q: Why must I commit to give a specific amount?

A: Please keep in mind that your stewardship of money is kept in the strictest of confidence. However, we do compile the amounts anticipated to better plan our budget.

Q: What if I cannot fulfill my stewardship commitment?

A: During the course of a year, circumstances change. Your stewardship is valued because it is made out of your love for God and His Church. Please do not be concerned if you are unable to meet your stewardship commitment – we are glad you are a part of this parish.
