

SAINTS CONSTANTINE AND HELEN GREEK ORTHODOX CHURCH

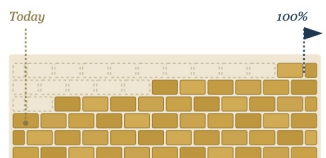

Rise Up and Build

Nehemiah didn't just see a city — he saw what it could become.

On October 18th, our parish begins a new chapter: a vision to grow into full self-sufficiency, sustained by the faithful stewardship of our own community. Like Nehemiah, we rise up and build together, because we believe in what we can become. Wall by wall: prayer, worship, generosity, and love.

This isn't only about money. It's about multiplying what God has already given each of us — our time, our talents, and our treasure. Whatever you have been entrusted with, we invite you to grow it this year.
