Supporting the Ecumenical Patriarchate Fund

What Is Philoptochos Sunday?

Philoptochos Sunday celebrates the vital role of each Philoptochos Chapter in its parish community – women of faith who serve with love, compassion, and dedication throughout the year.

On this special day, chapters across the nation join together to honor our Mother Church, the Ecumenical Patriarchate, and to support her sacred ministries.

It celebrates the mission of Philoptochos, “friends of the poor”, serving those in need through compassion and faith.

How to Participate

- Pray for the Ecumenical Patriarchate and its ministries.
- Give generously to the Philoptochos collection following Divine Liturgy.
- Share the message - encourage others in your parish to take part in this meaningful tradition.

Why We Give

Our offering on Philoptochos Sunday supports the Ecumenical Patriarchate Fund, which sustains the Ecumenical Patriarchate's spiritual, educational, and philanthropic ministries.

- Preserving the sacred mission of the Mother Church
- Supporting education and faith formation
- Uplifting communities through compassion and service

Your Impact

Together, Philoptochos chapters across the country strengthen our sacred bond with the Ecumenical Patriarchate and help ensure its enduring presence for generations to come.

Your gift nurtures the heart of our Orthodox faith.
