

Learning about Orthodox Burial Preparation Ministry

Saturday, Nov. 9
12:30–4:30

Burial Preparation Ministry offers an alternative to funeral home services. It honors the physical body as a temple of the Holy Spirit. Christians can be present with and care for their departed loved ones, in the hope of the resurrection.

- 12:30 Panikhida for our departed
- 1:00 Workshop Presentation/Discussion
- 3:00 Break and Refreshments
- 3:30 Hands-on Practice Session
- 4:30 Close
- 5:00 Vespers, followed by Supper

To register for free:
sspeterpaul.org/event

Mka. Sarah Geana, Michelle Thornton, and Deborah Krajcik, members of the Great Martyr Irene Burial Preparation Ministry of Holy Trinity Church, Springfield, Vermont, will share their knowledge and experience with us. They established and began sharing this ministry in the diocese with the blessing of His Beatitude, Metropolitan Tikhon.