Please join us for our Fireside Chat Series: Diverse Exploration of Faiths

Session 3: Wednesday, September 18, 2024, at 12pm

Topic: Everything you wanted to know about Orthodox Christianity but were afraid to ask.

Rev. Fr. Nikolas Karloutsos, Protopresbyter will offer an insightful overview of Orthodox Christianity, leveraging his extensive expertise. We invite you to join this interactive session from our Diverse Exploration of Faiths series.

Fr. Nikolas, born to Rev. Fr. and Mrs. Peter Karloutsos in Danbury, CT, is married to Meghan (née Skelly) of New Fairfield, CT, where they live with their three children. He holds a B.A. from NYU and a Master of Divinity from Holy Cross. Ordained in 2012, Fr. Nik serves at Assumption Church in Danbury and has worked as a chaplain at Regional Hospice. He also serves on the Archdiocesan Benefits Committee and as Treasurer of the Archdiocesan District Clergy Fellowship. He is dedicated to his family and is a rare disease advocate.

We look forward to expanding our understanding of diverse faiths together.
