Deacon Marek Simon

Exec. Director Orthodox Christian Fellowship (OCF)

Dn. Marek has over 20 years of experience in youth and young adult ministry. He previously served at Antiochian Village Camp from 2002-2019, mentoring and supervising summer camp staff, developing programming, and overseeing the advancement efforts of the camp. He transitioned to his role with OCF in 2019, recognizing a strong desire and opportunity to strengthen the Church's ministry to college students. He believes that every college student should have the opportunity to be part of a faithful campus community where they are known and loved- keeping students more richly connected to Christ.

Dn. Marek has a Master of Divinity from St. Vladimir Orthodox Theological Seminary and a Bachelor of Science in Pharmacy, Butler University

.Dn. Marek serves in Franklin, TN for the Antiochian Orthodox Church
