

Helen Zisimopoulos has been a dedicated member of the Philoptochos at Saint Nicholas Cathedral. Helen found immense joy in volunteering, forging unbreakable bonds with her fellow Philoptochos sisters. As a steadfast member, Helen participated in numerous fundraisers, including bake sales, fashion shows and rummage sales, where she played a vital role along with her sisters in raising crucial funds for those in need. More recently, Helen served as treasurer where she leveraged her banking background, budgeting skills and eye for detail. Helen's compassion and tireless efforts not only provided essential support but also inspired hope. Her dedication to helping those in need, has touched countless lives and her commitment serves as an inspiring example, reminding us of the profound impact one person's kindness can have on an entire community.
