

Celebrating 60 Years of the Hellenic Cultural Society of San Diego

Co-hosted by the Pan Arcadians, join us for a truly special evening as we celebrate the 60th anniversary of the Hellenic Cultural Society of San Diego.

To mark this milestone, we are honored to host renowned historian and author Edward J. Watts as he presents an exciting lecture on his new book, The Romans. This is your chance to hear firsthand about the intrigue, power struggles, and cultural brilliance of the Byzantine and Roman Empire.

Following the lecture, step back in time with us and experience a night of grand feasting hosted by the Society and The Pan Arcadians of San Diego as we honor one of our own, George H. Anagnostopoulos, Professor Emeritus of Philosophy.

We will be inspired by the authentic flavors of this historic period, from the bustling markets of Constantinople to the opulent tables of emperors. It's a chance to honor our past, celebrate a brilliant new work of history, and rediscover the excitement of this powerful and influential civilization.
