

MARCH 9, 2025 | SUNDAY OF ORTHODOXY

Sunday of Orthodoxy

Before the Sunday of Orthodoxy Procession, Author Ellen Karis will read her children's book to the Sunday School Classes "Special People: Godparents in the Orthodox Christian Faith". A sweet book that teaches children the important role their Godparents have in their lives, as they guide them in worshiping their Orthodox Christian Faith. The book makes a great gift item, Sunday School resource and a reminder of this special connection. The books will be available for sale at Coffee Hour.

Special Guest: Ellen Karis

Author of "Special People: Godparents in the Orthodox Christian Faith"

Ellen Karis is the "Greek Goddess of Comedy" and has performed Stand-Up Comedy all over North America and has three comedy specials and is incredibly popular in the Greek American community being one of the few Greek female stand-up comedians performing today. She is the host of a weekly podcast "Sweet and Salty with Ellen Karis" in its 11th season and is an actress having appeared on Amazon Prime's "The Marvelous Mrs. Maisel" and the Tina Fey's movie "Sisters". She is also an Author, with her children's book "Special People: Godparents in the Orthodox Christian Faith" and is currently working on a one woman show about her Great-Grandmother who immigrated from Cyprus to America.
