THE LEGACY OF BYZANTINE CHANT FROM ASIA MINOR

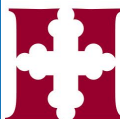

John Michael Boyer

ASSOCIATE MUSIC DIRECTOR, CAPPELLA ROMANA

The acclaimed ensemble Cappella Romana ("simply beautiful" New York Times) comes to Boston this November, performing Byzantine Chant at the beautifully renovated Dormition Church. During the ethnic cleansing in Asia Minor that included the 1922 burning of Smyrna (İzmir), Greek-speaking refugees fled to cities in Greece and around the world, including the Greek Orthodox community in Somerville. With them they brought their own traditions of Byzantine chanting, infused with irrepressible joy and transcendent beauty. Don't miss Cappella Romana in Somerville!
