The Saint Nektarios Monastery was founded and established in January 1999 by the reverend Elder Ephraim with the blessing of the Greek Orthodox Archdiocese of America. The purpose of the Monastery is to provide a spiritual setting wherein worship and doxology of the Holy Trinity can take place ceaselessly by the resident monks; to be a luminous example of virtue and holy conduct for the faithful; and to preserve the sacred traditions of the Orthodox Church and transmit them to the ensuing generations.

The Monastery is a place of sanctity and repentance, thus visitors are kindly asked to respect the quietude and solitude of the grounds.

- Visitors must be dressed modestly.
- Women must wear long skirts, long-sleeved blouses, and cover their head with a scarf.
- Pants, mini-skirts, skin-tight clothing, short sleeves, and low-cut blouses are unacceptable.
- Men must wear long pants and long-sleeved shirts.
- Shoes or sandals must be worn with socks at all times - no bare feet permitted.
- Orthodox Clergy must wear a Cassock (raso) while at the Monastery.
- Parents with young children must supervise their children at all times.
- Smoking is strictly forbidden anywhere on the Monastery grounds.
- Please ask before taking any photographs.
- Video recordings are not permitted.
